The entrance to Mt. Anthony's cave at Bennington is to be enlarged so the public may enter. The existence of the cave has been known for over 180 years. The entrance is no larger than a flour barrel and has become blocked by falling stones. A medium sized mine could not crawl in. There are seven rooms in the cave, separated by narrow passages.

Merrill L. Lawrence of Springfield possesses a charter given to certain men by George III. making Springfield a township. The document includes the letters patent, granting to Lieut. Thomas Pierington 500 acres of land, and to Charles Shaw and 26 others 27,700 acres of land in the county of Cumberland to make a township to be known as Springfield. The charter is kept in the original home bag, made in England, coarse, much frayed and worn with age.

Harold G. Earle H. and Raymond C. Tower of Rutland, the oldest of whom is only 14, have attracted considerable attention among people interested in the development of children along musical lines. One plays the piano, another the cornet and the third a violin. Each sings and one has an unusually fine voice. One is a good clog dancer and another can execute a buck and wing with considerable agility. Neither father or mother is musically inclined.

A million for Vermont highways is the approximate amount in dollars that will be expended in the state this year, and a sum double that of last year. The appointments of county supervisors have not yet been made. The appropriation calls for $150,000 annually, which is double the amount of the past two years. Besides the $150,000 appropriation the towns meeting the dollar for dollar expenditure of the state under the special provision of the law, may be expected to appropriate $112,500 more for state roads. Besides this comes the revenue for automobile taxes estimated at $50,000 for 1911, the 5 per cent. state tax of $113,500 and the 20 per cent. town tax of $300,250, the whole totalling $990,000. Arrangements will be made soon by Commissioner Gates for the winter conferences of county and town commissioners to plan out the work.

State Commissioner of Agriculture Martin has arranged for a farmers' meeting in grange hall at Marshfield in the afternoon and evening of Saturday, Jan. 21.

Brigham, potato and soil specialist, of St. Albans; C. F. Smith, master of the Vermont state grange, of Morrisville; A. F. Hawes, state forester, and O. L. Martin, state commissioner of agriculture, of Plainfield.

All the subjects to be spoken on will have much interest for every farmer who attends, and it is hoped the farmers and all other residents in the town will turn out and make a big gathering.

Chased by Broomstick. Eoomstick in Hands of Woman Says Man Under Arrest.

Burlington, Jan. 17.—A man named Edward Foster, resident Essex, was arrested by Sheriff Allen yesterday and brought to Burlington, where he was assigned before Justice T. Stearns on a charge of breach of the peace. The case was continued for one week, Foster being released upon furnishing $30 bail.

It is charged that Foster breached the peace by making a noisy demonstration on the premises of a woman named Cross. Foster told the court, however, that there was nothing to it, and that the demonstration on from the other side. He said that Mr. Cross gave him permission to go to his home and borrow an axe. When he went in to obtain the implement he was met by Mrs. Cross, who was not inclined, he said, to let the axe go out of her possession, but immediately threatened him and chased him into the road with a broomstick. The other side of the story will probably come out the day of the postponed hearing.

About the State

George Temple of Newbury fell from a load of logs recently, breaking one bone in his neck and completely paralyzing his body. His recovery is unexpected.

Rev. W. R. Curtis of Clarendon, the minister who divides his time between farming and attending to his ministerial duties, handled last year 91,300 eggs and 1,500 heads of poultry.

E. F. Wiley of Roxbury, a freight brakeman on the Maine Central, died Saturday at Augusta, Me., of injuries received in an accident at Redfield, Me., when his foot was caught and he went under the wheels.

Realizing the need of a hospital in Bellows Falls and spurred on by the efforts of the Woman's club of that place, to start a fund with that end in view, the Knights of Pythias are to give a benefit dance and turn the proceeds over to the hospital fund.

Dr. O'Brien of this place was meanwhile summoned and declared that the man was suffering from a nervous collapse and was evidently on the verge of a long illness.

His brother told the authorities here that Downs suddenly and mysteriously disappeared from Somerville Saturday, that a general alarm had been sent out to all Boston police stations, that all hospitals had been visited and every possible clue followed up, all to no avail, and that they had about come to the conclusion that he had thrown himself in the bay, when the welcome telephone message came from Bellows Falls, telling of his whereabouts.

When his brother from Somerville reached this place Sunday night, Downs recognized him, but could recall nothing more about his friends or business, or why he left home, or why he had started for Burlington.

At 8 o'clock last night, Sheriff Phelps of this place received a telephone from Cottage house Hill street, Barre, Vt., saying that Downs had been found, and that his mind is now a complete blank.

ATWATER HAD NO CHANCE.

Langford Played with Him for Three Rounds.

Utica, N. Y., Jan. 16.—Sam Langford appeared in a bout with Fred Atwater at the state armory last night. Atwater is a bigger negro, but had no chance. Langford played with him in the first rounds, even dropping his guard and permitting three straight blows to land. He then punished Atwater and in the third round floored him with a terrific punch. The bout was so one-sided that it was stopped there.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solid traits for the welfare of others that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Hairdye.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Hairdye Co., Detroit, Mich.

HIS MIND A BLANK.

L. W. Downs, a Prominent Business Man of Somerville, Mass., Reached Bellows Falls Sunday Morning.

Bellows Falls, Jan. 17.—L. W. Downs, a prominent business man of Somerville, Mass., wandered into the police station at this place at 11 o'clock Sunday morning in a dazed condition and asked the chief what his (Downs) name was. He could not tell where he came from or when he was bound to go, or what his business was, or anything else about himself. It appears he got off the train from Boston at Cold River, and wandered aimlessly along until he came to this place, where he had just sense enough to go to the police station for help. He was not intoxicated, but just dazed.

Chief Severance questioned him closely but could elicit no information, whereupon he proceeded to institute a search in his pockets. This revealed a ticket to Burlington, cash to the amount of $80, several receipts and some letters. The last-named gave his name and business address in Somerville, and Mr. Downs' brother came up, reaching here at 11 o'clock Sunday night, and took him home.
